Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 4.—Somebody has kicked the lid off and some of the gambling houses which were closed by orders of Police Inspector King, are doing business today. According to the gossip of the sporting world the Saratoga Business Men's League raised such a storm over the close down of the gambling houses that Senator Crackett, who originally promulgated the anti-gambling order, was forced to rescind it. In the meantime the sports men and merchants are shaking each other by the hand in the joy of the big "do-

This being true, it means that the total speculated sum shown by the auditor's report of $34,636.60 is a total loss to the city, unless the municipal corporation can legally recover the amount of the valuation of the Smith estate. What the value of this estate remains a problem, but it is supposed to be far below the amount of the alleged shortage.

Their Examination as to Claims Takes Place
 Sept. 27.

New York, Aug. 4.—At the request of Kellogg and Ross, counsel for Greene and Gaylor, under conviction for embezzlement in connection with harbor improvements at Savannah, Ga., the attorney general of the United States has fixed September 27 as the date for the examination by the government of Greene and Gaylor in their claims now pending against the government in the court of claims. The examination will be held at the prison in Macon, Ga., where Greene and Gaylor are confined.

Licensed Inspectors Ewing and Haynes are hot after the real estate solicitors. In Atlanta there are many men in this business and only comparatively few have conformed to the ordinance which reads:

"Real estate solicitors connected with offices of licensed real estate agents and selling, on commission, each $10 annually."

Inspector Ewing said Friday that cases would be made against any of the solicitors who refused to pay the fine.

Philadelphia, Aug. 4.—That both feel ill effects today from their 9,999-foot ascension into the clouds in the balloon Orient a week ago was admitted by Dr. T. Chalmers Fulton, who with Dr. Samuel J. Ottinger made an ascension from the Aeron Club grounds in the interest of science. Since their descent each of the physicians has experienced heart trouble and other difficulties.
